Internal Quality Assurance Cell

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), recommends every accredited institution to establish an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as a quality sustenance measure. The IQAC aims to develop a system for continuous improvement in the institution's performance, fostering a sense of belonging and participation.

The primary aim of the IQAC is:

1. To develop a mechanism to promote conscious, consistent and catalytic action plans to improve the academic and administrative performance of the institution.
2. To promote institutional quality enhancement and sustenance through the internalization of quality culture and institutionalization of the best practices.
